Faculty Changes Are Numerous

Dr. Anna A. Schnieb, who retired from the Eastern faculty at the close of the school year 1951-52, is now teaching psychology at Ball State Teachers College in her home town, Muncie, Indiana.

Miss May C. Hansen, long-time associate professor of elementary education at Eastern, has retired from active teaching and is now assisting in the children's library on the campus.

New Faculty Members

Ronald Carley, of Monaca, Pa., returned to teach piano. He taught at Eastern in 1950-51 and at Winchester College, New Wilmington, Pa., last year. Mr. Carley is a graduate of Carnegie Institute of Technology and received the master of music degree from Indiana University.

Lt. Col. Alden O. Hatch, of Salt Lake City, Utah, was assigned to the ROTC unit in July replacing Lt. Col. David M. Easterday as assistant professor of military science and tactics. Lt. Col. Easterday was reassigned for service in the Far East. Lt. Col. Hatch returned in June from 31 months of service with the Far East Command. He and his wife and four children live on the Barnes Mill Road.

Dr. R. E. Jagers, who was formerly connected with Eastern, is a member of the education department faculty. He is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and has the Ph. D. degree from Cornell University. For a number of years he was director of certification in the State Department of Education before going to the University of South Carolina where he was professor of elementary education. Since June, 1949, he has been head of the education and psychology department at State Teachers College, Florence, Ala.

Two Students Are Far From Home

By GWEN JONES

A few hundred miles, according to most of us here at Eastern, is a long distance from home. The two girls living in Room 356 Burnham Hall, however, would consider a hundred miles or so as practically nothing, for they left their families and friends not hundreds, but thousands of miles away.

One of these girls, Miss Priscilla M. Bactad, after a journey by boat, plane, and bus from Manila, Philippines, arrived here this year to begin work on her Master's degree in Education. We have her cousin, Francisca Bello, a student here in 1949-50, to thank for encouraging Priscilla to choose Eastern as her first American Alma Mater.

Miss Bactad finished her Bachelor's degree in Business Administration at the University of the East and received her Bachelor of Science degree in Education at Adamson University, both in Manila. At Adamson she began her career on the faculty in 1949, teaching accounting. She is one of the industrious few who claims the title of certified public accountant.

Priscilla was astounded, as it seems most of our foreign students have been, by the friendliness of everyone on our campus. Our habits of speaking to casual acquaintances and smiling at strangers are not usually practiced at the schools in Manila. She also noticed a difference in the type of students who are studying here; as most of us do our own washing and ironing, the students in the Philippines usually have maids to do their work for them. We'd like that!

Priscilla's English is so precise and clear that I wondered, since she has been in this country only a short time, how she learned it so quickly. She said that the English language is taught in their schools from the first grade on, and that their national language, Tagalog, has only recently been put on the school curriculum.

After getting her degree from Eastern, Priscilla plans to go to New York for further studies, and then will return to her home and continue teaching at Adamson. Her philosophy of her profession is something we can remember and appreciate. She believes that teaching is the only way we can impart a little of what we have learned, thus helping our country.

Miss Nguyen

No doubt you've noticed a busy little figure, dressed in her native costume, going about her business on the campus. She is Dau Minh Nguyen, also far from home, from Vietnam, one of three countries which make up Indo-China. Although this interview came at an inconvenient time for her, she willingly put away her work, saying, "You ask the questions, I'll answer them."

Because her country is at war—striving to gain independence from France—Miss Nguyen found it difficult to gain an education there and came to the United States. Her major is secondary education. She chose this field because she is very much interested and feels, as Miss Bactad, that the best way she can help her country is through education.

Dau Minh Nguyen received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Ohio University in August and is now working on her Master's degree at Eastern. She has a sister at Columbia University who is also majoring in education. They both plan to set up schools in Vietnam and perhaps write a book.

Homecoming Parade is Planned by Kyma Club

Homecoming is November 1, and again KYMA Club is sponsoring the parade of floats, which becomes extremely important to all active clubs at this time of year. All clubs and also independent groups are invited to participate in the parade by contributing a float and selecting to adorn it, a candidate for the title "Homecoming Queen".

The floats and beauty contestants will be judged by selected members of the Alumni Association and prizes will be given.

Each club participating is asked to pay an entrance fee of $2.00 at the time of registration. All groups who wish participate may register with Kay Wilson, publicity chairman, at any time.

A Good Start

By DOT McPHAIL

The tall, stately girl with the timid smile, the boisterous lad with the slap-happy hand, the slouchy boy with the shuffling walk, the tiny girl with the twinkling eyes, the prima donna with her three trunks of clothes, the young Apollo with the football scholarship—to Eastern they came with but one thing in common. . . they were freshmen.

Some approached freshman week in bewilderment, some in anticipation, and some in complete assurance that by the end of the week they would be ready to take over. Little did they know of what was yet to come. Oh, there were good times to be had at the "Y" pajama party for the girls and the mixed party in the Rec Room of the Student Union. Also, they were given free tickets to the movie, "Golden Girl."

But all was not a bed of roses, for classification tests had to be taken. Having completed the tests, the freshmen threw themselves in a frenzy trying to convince each other that they had failed not one, not two, but all of the tests given.

Have taken the tests, listened to lectures, met with counselors, poured over the catalogue, and been given advice by former students, the freshmen felt prepared for registration day. Now they know that nothing can prepare one for the heartrending agony experienced in this mass demonstration of the survival of the fittest. They stood in never ending lines; they raced from floor to floor; they stood in line; they pushed and shoved; they dashed from room to room; they had schedules approved; they stood in line; they stood in line; they stood in line. Such looks of woe, of utter dejection!

Yes, those high school graduates with suitcase in hand began the week with one thing in common—they were freshmen; they ended it with another thing in common—their feet hurt.

Your Newspaper

The Progress is your newspaper and your help is needed to shape it into the kind of publication you want. You aren't necessarily needed for the work of writing, typing, etc., although you are more than welcome. No, Progress staff members, the dependable ones, are capable of this kind of hard work, and are deserving of your thanks. Your job is to criticize (and we know that this, too, is deserving, and make helpful suggestions which we will gratefully accept and attempt to carry out.

We would like to publish a 'letters to the editor' column—but we need the letters from you. Your signature on any submitted material or letter is not necessary, but will be printed if you so desire. Slipping a letter of criticism or help under the door of Progress, in room 100 of the Student Union Building, will be a satisfactory way of disposing of the evidence, but a box labeled "Progress" will ultimately be placed in some obvious location. We hope you will take advantage of these methods and write a short or long paragraph for your Progress.

Remember, the Progress is your Newspaper. . . . .

An Open Letter to Freshmen

Dear Frosh:

Hi! Well, you have had a few weeks of college by now. Do you like it? Here's hoping you do. But in any case you are here—you have made the plunge. But what are you going to do from now until next spring?

Several choices are open. You can sit on your can in the grill and in your room and do as little as is necessary for you to get by, or you can get busy and really try to accomplish something. The choice is yours, of course.

College is not just a continuation of high school as you have probably already found out, it is a way of life. It is an entirely new environment and your job is to adapt yourself to it.

That old trite expression "You'll get exactly out of it what you put into it" is very appreciable here.

The best advice anyone can give you is get busy. Join, participate, go, do. You think you have no talent? Consider, surely you must be interested in something. Did you know about the Photo Club, the Chess Club, the Little Theater Club, the Debate Team, Drum and Saddle? The list of active and interesting clubs goes on endlessly. The more activities you participate in the more successful your college career will be. Why not give it a try?

Sincerely yours,
 William Greynolds,

Meet A Senior

"I came to Eastern to be a coach and got interested in books," explains OWEN HAUCK who is known campus-wide for his intellectual ability in almost any field.

Owen said he became interested through Mr. Adams, who was the instructor of one of his history classes. Since then Mr. Adams has called upon Owen quite often in taking over his classes. Owen also did quite a bit of last year with the "This I Believe" series conducted by Mr. Adams.

Young Hauck enjoys reading and has been said to be able to read two or three books at once. His reading hobby includes every variety of literatures as does his library of 400 books.

"I'm sold on this business of class discussion. I believe in getting away from the text books," Owen thinks that group participation is a necessity. He lists history as his favorite subject and explains his preference as being a "history of ideas and what the past means today in solving problems."

Owen a senior from Ludlow, Ky., will leave campus October 27 to do his practice teaching in physical education in Ft. Thomas. After graduating in mid term, Owen would like to begin working on his Master's degree, probably at the University of Cincinnati. Owen, who has maintained a B average, came to Eastern after one year of work at St. Xavier, and has gone to school winter and summer for the past three years.

She's editor of the Milestone; she's Miss Popularity; she's Stan's girl; she's PAT RICEY.

Take a friendly smile a fair complexion, mix well with shoulder-length brown hair, add two sparkling blue eyes, well distributed over 117 pounds and 21 years of age, you should get Eastern's well-known Miss Popularity. If this description doesn't introduce you to Miss Richey, you will recognize her as being the girl constantly with senior Stan Stanford whose 6'6" torso well above Pat's 5'4". "My past time is being with Stan," Pat reports.

Pat is also treasurer of the YWCA, vice president of the House Council, and a member of Drum and Saddle. Pat may also be remembered as being voted the best dressed girl on campus. This title bestowed on her by last year's journalism class shows how beneficial a hobby may be. Pat enjoys sewing and practically her complete wardrobe is of original creation.

Our young lady's domestic ability doesn't stop with sewing. "I love to knit," she remarks, which brings a twinkle to Stan's eyes as he laughingly replies: "She's still only on my second pair of argyles, tho."

Pat, who hails from Cincinnati, Ohio, is a senior on campus and is now doing her student teaching in the first grade at the Training School. She hints that the future will reserve a teaching job in her native state—but that all depends!

Mr. Ballou: "This is a lovely greeting card with a lovely sentiment. 'To the only boy I ever loved.'"

Betsy Otis: "That's fine, — give me a dozen."

CLUB NEWS

By EDIE TAYLOR

Big guns of the YW-YMCA are presidents Wanda Smyth and Chalmers Vineyard. After a terrific freshmen week of varied activities, the Y invited all of its members and guests on a welter-hayride, Thursday, October 2.

A note from the Photo Club! Any person with one semester of hours to his credit is most welcome to become a member of this "snap-shot" group. President Richard announces that the organization meets first and third Thursdays at 6 p.m. in room 201, SUB. Helping Dick to run the club's business are Olga F. Preston, vice president; Jim Allender, secretary; and Doris Lewis, treasurer.

Weekly Teas

Beginning sometime soon House Council plans to entertain the girls of Burnam Hall with weekly teas held in the Lobby. These get-togethers are scheduled for Wednesday afternoons from 3:30 to 4:30 and are very informal. The purpose is for girls to get to know who lives on the floor above them as well as the one who lives down the hall. Sure hope every girl attends them often!

Boat ride every Sunday! September 28 the Westminster Fellowship group made a sightseeing trip touring the Kentucky River. Seven days later the same trip was enjoyed by approximately 60 Wesley Foundationers. Witches and black cats will find these two organizations celebrating their annual Halloween parties together. This event will be at the Presbyterian Church and time and date will be announced later.

Kappa Pi, Eastern's national

There are approximately thirty five new tryouts for Eastern's Pep Club, so far, but it is not too late to join. Officers of KYMA are Bob Garrett, president; Clyde White, vice president; Betty Crank, secretary; and Patsy Purkey, treasurer; with Ernest Durham, tryout manager. KYMA meets every Wednesday night at 8:30 p.m. in room 202 of the Student Union Building.

Eastern's "E" Club held its first meeting Thursday, September 25, in the University Building with President Cuck Schmitt presiding. It was unanimously voted to have Dad's Night on October 11. The plans were made to have a dinner for the dads and to honor them at the game that night between Eastern and Tennessee Tech. Stan Stanford was chosen to be master of ceremonies, and Clay Moore and Gordon Fleck are to act as guides.

Kappa Alpha Epsilon, a sophomore men's honorary society, is making an establishment on our campus. Approximately 20 second year male students were invited last year to become members. Roger Stephens is the club's first president, while Oris Johnson is secretary and Doug Hibbard, treasurer. Vice president is yet to be chosen. John W. Rowlett, industrial arts instructor, is sponsor.

President Virginia Durbin and her Cwens are really off to a fast pace. One of Cwens' projects for this year is the weekly half hour musical program held in Burnam Hall from 6:30 to 7 p.m. on Thursdays. This entertainment is for the girls and their guests. Next week's program, under the direction of Dixie Trapp, will consist of Marty LeFevers, Connie Robinson, Laura Ellis and Annette Jeters.

Saturday, October 18, approximately 15 Cwens will journey to the University of Louisville along with the University of Kentucky to install a new national chapter. Five of our girls will take part. Hope all the presidents have a reporter in their midst. May this person turn in to the Progress editors all club activities, plans, etc. We really need you!

New Alumni Constitution Is Approved

The new alumni constitution, which was submitted to the vote of the alumni of Eastern in the spring of 1952, was overwhelmingly approved by the votes received in the office of the Alumni Association. The new constitution went into effect on June 1, 1952. The major changes made by the new document include—

1. The name of the Association was changed to agree with the present name of the college. 2. The executive committee was enlarged from seven to eleven members and was given the authority to transact the business of the Association. 3. Officers of the Association are elected one year in advance of their year of service. During the year in which they are officers-elect they serve as members of the executive committee and thus have an opportunity to study the plans and policies of the Association and to formulate plans to be put into effect during their term of office. A number of amendments which had been made over a period of years to the old constitution were moved into the main body of the document. 4. Eligibility for active membership in the Association is limited to those people who received Bachelors or Masters degree since that time. Any graduate of Eastern who is eligible for membership in the Association may become an active member upon the payment of $2.00 annual dues ($3.00 for man and wife who are both graduates) or upon subscribing to a life membership for $50.00. 5. Any student who has been enrolled at Eastern for one semester, and former faculty member or friend of the college may become an associate member by the payment of the regular dues. Officers of the Association and the right to vote are limited to the active membership.

Alumni Officers

The election of alumni officers in May, 1952 produced the most unusual situation. The two candidates for president, Mr. Edward Gabbard of Lexington and Mr. Otwell Rankin of Erlanger, were tied when the final votes had been received. Under the change over from the old to the new constitution the officers elected in 1951 would serve for two years.

Mr. Paul Bunton who was elected president in 1951 helped the Executive Committee solve this dilemma by resigning as president. Mr. Gabbard then accepted the presidency for the year 1952-53, and Mr. Rankin became president-elect for 1953-54.

The Executive Committee of the association now includes:

President: Mr. Edward Gabbard, 1946. Mr. Gabbard is Assistant to the Comptroller at the University of Kentucky. Since graduation from Eastern he has taken his Masters degree at the University. 1st Vice-President: Mr. Homer Ramsey, 1939, an attorney in Whitley City, Kentucky. 2nd Vice-President: Miss Mary K. Ingels, 1937, high school teacher in Cynthiana, Kentucky. President-elect: Mr. Otwell Rankin, 1938, an accountant in Erlanger, Kentucky. 1st Vice-President-elect: Miss Ida Teater, A. B. in 1947 and M. A. in 1948, a critic teacher in Model High School. 2nd Vice-President elect: Mr. Norman McGuffey, 1949, Principal of Highland High School, Waynesburg, Kentucky. President of the E. K. E. A. Eastern Club: Mrs. John M. Boggs, Jr. (Peggy McGuire) 1949, supervisor of pupil personnel, Russell, Kentucky. President of the Northern Kentucky Eastern Club: Mr. A. J. Hauselman, 1951, Ft. Thomas City Schools. President of the Louisville Eastern Club: Mr. Bernard Wilson, 1936, insurance, Louisville. Member at-large: Mr. Paul Bunton, 1948, salesman with the Burroughs Co., Lexington, Kentucky. Executive Secretary: Miss Frances McKinney, faculty at Eastern.

Mrs. Deniston In The Alumni Office

The Alumni Association has been fortunate to secure Mrs. N. G. Deniston as secretary in the alumni office. Mrs. Deniston is a graduate of Bowling Green Business University and before her marriage was secretary in the Business Office at Eastern.

Since the last issue of the Progress in May, 1952 Miss Margie Hall who was serving as secretary while a part time student, resigned to take a position as accountant in the O. V. Arnett Company. During the summer months Miss Billie Davis, who had just completed her freshman year in commerce at Eastern, served as secretary in the alumni office. Miss Davis re-enrolled at Eastern this fall but is serving as student assistant in the office.

Engagements

Hester-Enright

Mr. and Mrs. Paul N. Hester of Brooksville have announced the engagement of their eldest daughter, Mildred Jane, to Mr. Roger D. Enright. The wedding will be an event of next spring. Miss Hester is a graduate of Eastern in the class of 1949. She is now employed as Home Service Advisor for the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. of Norwalk, Ohio.

LOST PUPIL

"I guess I've lost another pupil," said the professor as his glass eye rolled down the lab sink."

Bingham, "Would you call for help if I tried to kiss you?" Linda, "Do you need any help?"

She had been visiting her friend, Miss McAllister, who was doing special work with the Speech Clinic at the University of Kentucky this summer. Miss McAllister teaches in the Louisville City School and expects to do special speech correction work. Miss McAllister is a member of the class of 1935.

Miss Jennie Ramsey, class of 1928, visited the campus on August 15. This was Miss Ramsey's first trip to the campus for a number of years. Since leaving Eastern Miss Ramsey has taken her M. A. degree at Columbia University, studied at Peabody College in Nashville, Tenn. and at the University of North Carolina and had a General Education Board scholarship at Stanford University in Palo Alto, California. She taught English and Social Science at the Benham, Ky. High School until 1944. During that time she was on the staff of several workshops from Eastern and the University of Kentucky. In 1944 she went to Alabama College, Montevallo, where she was supervisor in the laboratory school. In 1945 she went with the Junior Red Cross and is now a consultant for that organization for Florida and Georgia. Her address is P. O. Box 258, Orlando, Florida.

Mrs. Eleanor Butler Adams of Pasadena, California, was a campus visitor during the summer. Mrs. Adams is a member of the class of 1948. While in Richmond she was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Stone on Lancaster Avenue.

Miss Caroline Moores has returned to her position as a member of the faculty of Eastman High School at Columbus, Ohio after spending her summer vacation in Richmond with her family and friends. Miss Moores is instructor in speech.

Mrs. Don Louis Hignite and daughters, Cynthia and Ann, were in Richmond during August for a visit with her family and visited the campus. Mrs. Hignite was the former Doris Million, class of 1939. Commander Hignite joined his family here for a short stay before their return to their home in Washington, D. C. Commander Hignite has been transferred to New York and they are renting their Washington home and moving to Long Island.

Mr. E. K. Broadus called at the alumni office on September 18. Mr. Broadus was a member of the class of 1913. He was accompanied by his daughter and her husband from Lexington. Mr. Broadus was interested in locating a college annual for 1913. He says that under his picture was made the statement that E. K. Broadus was the best athlete ever to attend Eastern. His daughter assured the alumni that when her two sons enter Eastern in the not too distant future she expects them to make an even better record than their grandfather did. The Phalanx Club was the old departmental club that has been out of existence for a number of years. Then senior cadets are drawing up a constitution for approval.

Talented Foursome

On Wednesday, September 24, in the lobby of Burnam Hall, a male quartet presented a musical program for the girls of Burnam. This program was the first in a planned series to be sponsored by the CWENS.

The quartet was composed of Huey Brooks, who sings baritone; Bill Vendl, who sings second tenor; Jim Winn, who sings bass; and Holly Chilton, singing first tenor. The boys sang several numbers among which "Bells of St. Mary's" and "String Along" were favorites. This was the first scheduled appearance of this quartet on the campus, although the boys have entertained Burnam a few times from the outside looking in, and have cheered up the campus from time to time with their evening rehearsals.

On Friday, September 26, the quartet appeared at the Clark County Fair, where they won first place in the Barbara Shop Four and Negro Spiritual divisions.

Bill Vendl takes the lead in this quartet. He is a 20 year old senior from Cicero, Illinois, majoring in Geography and physical education. Bill's singing career included six years of choir, and two years of solos and quartet work. Bill's extra-curricular activities include being co-captain of the swim team, being sports editor of the PROGRESS, track team, and belonging to the "E" Club. Holly Chilton, the tenor, is a 19 year old sophomore from Harrodsburg. Holly is a music-industrial arts major. He has had seven years of experience in choir, and four years of quartets and solo singing. His interests lie in the Music Club, the band, and the choir.

Most of us know Hugh Brooks because he is a cheerleader, but he is also active in the choir, swim team, B. S. U. council, and is vice president of Y. M. C. A. Hugh, a 20 year old junior from Corbin is the baritone of the group and majors in history and English.

Jimmy Winn sings bass. He is a sophomore interested in the band, choir, K. I. E., and is B. S. U. music director. Jimmy is 19 years old, a music major and from Leitchfield. He has worked 7 years in choir and 2 years in quartet and solo singing.

The Cat's Meow

Yes, I think things are finally getting back to normal. After a lonesome summer I'm all ready to keep busy all day and every night keeping up with all the latest attraction. I can tell by all the couples in the grill and at Burnam Hall that school has finally started and that the romances are still going strong. As usual there are a lot of new faces on the campus, but by the time the year is over, I'll probably have made friends with most of them. I'll try to keep you informed about the latest developments.

I don't think I ever saw so many freshmen in all my years at Eastern. I feel like a stray cat that nobody loves because none of the seniors from last year are here. . . . It seems like everybody who was at Eastern has gotten a new roommate this year and they are all rooming in Vets Village. . . . Speaking of marriages, I don't think I'll even look for a mate if getting married means a black eye like Ann Cunningham's. And after only three weeks of wedded life. (She really fell!)

It looks like the Eastern Maroons are really rolling this year. I think it would be a wonderful idea if all the students at Eastern would show them half as much enthusiasm as "Mo" does. After all, look at the team we have to back! . . . Speaking of sports, it's good to see Howard Gracey and Buddy Roberts back as assistant football and basketball coaches. . . . I think that all the kids who aren't married are now halfway there. A lot of the girls are flashing diamonds around. The engaged couples are Bill and Jimmie Sue, Beverly Newton and her hometown fella, Mr. John Rowlette and Mary Ann Mason, and Bobbie True and Tommy Lisle. . . . Well, I give up!!!

For a while last year I thought that I had broken up that "Big Three" but things are off to the same start this year. Charlie True, Don Daly, and Fred Wincher are still together constantly and just won't give the girls a break! . . . Does Judd Hogan really like Eastern and basketball or was it Edie Taylor who brought him back this year? . . . Larry Lovington certainly made an impression on Centre College this smmer. It seems that Pat Perkins just could not go back to Centre after meeting him! . . . Have you noticed how nice and friendly Jim Bingham is this year. Keep up the good work, Linda. You're doing a fine job! . . . Looks like Marty LeFevers and Billie Davis will just have to keep each other company this year since Pee Wee is working and West has gone to visit Uncle Sam for a while. . . . Dean Rubarts and Kenny Durham seem to be having quite a time this year. And to think they hardly knew each other last year. . . . Tommy McAnallan seems to have his eye on Pat Ritter and I think most of the fellas will agree that she is really an eye-fel! . . . Four of the old couples are still happy but haven't as yet passed the "point of no return". What about it, Stan and Pat, Bill and Denyse, Jimmy and Janice, and Hannah and Jamie? . . . All that noise around supertime is just a bunch of the freshman football players making so called "music" in the lobby of the S.U.B. . . . When the Army gets in town Bob Garrett had better watch his step. Right, Annette? . . . Oakley is really living!! I've heard that there are a couple little freshman girls who really think he's something. Take your choice, Ox! . . . It looks like Joanne Goins had her eye on a certain football player with black curly hair and whose name is Frank. Any luck, Joanne? . . . "Dece" Daniels seems to have had a visitor named "Buck-ett" not long ago. I wonder if this old flame is growing stronger. . . . I see that something new has been added to the campus or haven't you noticed the lights in the ravine? . . . Clay and Betsy are still fussing and fighting. Oh well, they say true love never runs smoothly. . . . John Delaney is finally giving the girls a break. That's really something new! . . . Something tells me that Paul Haney and Tommy Holbrook have some attraction at home. Gee, aren't those gals lucky? . . . Agreed, Eastern girls? . . . Sid Smith and Mike Margaritis are monitors in the barracks now. Those are monitors? . . . Ronnie Curry seemed awfully happy a couple of week-ends ago. A visit from Shirley always brings a big smile to his face. . . . Janet Dameron seems on top of the world these days. I think Bob Spicer might possibly be the cause of that. . . . I wonder if Bill Vendl sings to Billie when he takes her out. . . . I heard that Janie McCord was the Belle of Richmond this summer. Wonder who will be the lucky boy this fall. . . . I guess everybody has noticed the two jitterbugs in the grill. I ain't never seen me nothing like that! . . . Eastern's band really looks good this year and of course, Mo is still doing his best. . . . If anybody knows anything I've forgotten or don't know about, drop me a line under the Progress door and I'll wander in and pick it up. It's about time for me to go meet my friend from down the street so goodbye for now. See you next issue. MEOW!!

Maroons Win Two of Three

Thoroughbreds Dampen High Hopes Held By Samuels Men

By NICK DeSANTIS

Eastern Kentucky's rampaging Maroons started the 1952 season with a bang. A fine assortment of fast, hard running backs and solid, rugged linemen had the Big Maroons flying an undefeated season.

In the season's opener at Toledo Eastern fans got a preview of what to expect in not only this season, but in the seasons to follow. It was a day for the underclassmen, as sophomore Don Daly scored Eastern's only touchdown and fullback Bill Bradford, junior, made the conversion that produced a 7-6 maroon victory. But it was not a well-played game. Neither team seemed able to get going and mistakes were plentiful. It is agreed this can be expected of a season's opening game.

Eastern 26 Marshall 19

At Huntington, Eastern spotted the maroon "Big Green" two first period touchdowns and then fought back in the closing minutes with an 84 yard march to snap a tie and produce a 20-19 victory.

Marshall took the opening kickoff and marched 63 yards for the game's first score. In a matter of minutes lightning struck again as the "Big Green" took an Eastern punt and came back down field 51 yards on five first downs to score and lead 13-0 at the end of the first period.

The Maroons started going places in the second quarter. The left-handed passing of fullback Roy Kidd sparked as Eastern scored twice. Halfback Bill George pulled in one of Kidd's passes and raced into the end zone for 6 points. The other score in this period was accounted for by Jim Hanlon's quarterback sneak.

At the end of the first half Marshall led 13-12 as Eastern failed in two conversion attempts.

In the third period Eastern got their running game moving. A pair of fine running backs Don Daly and Bill Bradford picked up 60 yards on a series of plays with Daly scoring. Oakley split the posts for the extra point and a 19-13 lead for Eastern.

With Marshall's quarterback, Ogden Thomas, filling the air with passes, the "Big Green" tied the score in the fourth quarter. Then with minutes left in the game Eastern put its game winning drive climaxed by speedy Jack Bond hotfooting it into the end-zone with the winning T. D. Oakley insured it by making the conversion.

Although Marshall seemingly dwarfed the underdog Eastern squad, many of the Maroons stated it was one of the sharpest, hard-fought games of the past seasons. It also showed a great improvement in the team play.

Injuries

The injury jinx seems to have a liking for seniors. Out of the seven active seniors on the Eastern squad, three have suffered the only injuries received. Bill George received a broken nose and Co-Captain Bill Adams a pull knee in the Toledo game. Dick Wilson had the misfortune of suffering the only injury in the Marshall game, a cracked rib.

Murray 10 - Eastern 0

On October 4, Eastern came home to play host the Thoroughbreds of Murray State. The Maroons first home game of the season ended on a dismal note as Murray beat Eastern at their own game by scoring late in the game.

It was all Eastern in the first half as Daly and Bradford gained at will. Taking the opening kickoff they came down the field 86 yards to the Murray 8. Then fullback Kidd fumbled and Murray recovered to end Eastern's most serious scoring threat of the game.

The rest of the first half was played out with neither team showing much power. Possession of the ball changed hands more by fumbles than by punts.

At the start of the second half the Thoroughbred caught fire and may have run off with the goal post except for the fine defensive playing of line backer Bob Mueller and safety man Ed Miracle. Murray covered 40 yards on a series of running plays, then a pass was good for 40 more and 6 points. The conversion was good.

In the fourth quarter Murray's Harold Cannady intercepted a Roy Kidd pass and ran 60 yards to the Eastern 5 yard line before he was brought down behind. Although the Eastern line dug in to hold Murray to no gain in three attempts, Behrendt had little trouble in kicking a field goal for a final 10-0 victory.

Eastern's first defeat was a bitter pill to swallow after a fine showing at Huntington. One of the bright notes of the contest was the good punts Bill George sent booming into Murray's back yard.

This game was the twelfth meeting between the two teams. Murray has won 6, Eastern 4, with 2 ties. Murray won the Ohio Valley Conference Championship last year.

Coach McBrayer Eyes Net Season

By BOB ELDER

Basketball practice gets underway here October 13, with the usual afternoon sessions daily. This year's squad will form around a nucleus of six seniors—Bill Bales, Elmer Tolson, Roger Geyer, Jim Bingham, Stan Stanford, and Shirley Kearns. The juniors are Roy Allison, Ken Davis, Paul Haney, Tom Holbrook, and Bob Mulcahy. Bobby Dispenett, Paul Collins, Harold Fraley, and Jim Floyd are the sophomore members of the varsity. There is a possibility that two or three freshmen will be included as the season progresses.

Larry Lovington, a six feet eight inch sophomore transfer from North Carolina State, is expected to add strength to the team when he becomes eligible in January. Stan Stanford was singled out by Coach Paul McBrayer for his improved play during the last half of the past season.

A top-flight schedule awaits the Maroons this year. Eastern plays, along with their tough conference foes, La Salle, winner of the National Invitational Tournament at New York last year, University of Dayton, a strong contender in both the N. I. T. and the National Collegiate Athletic Association Tournament, the tough North Carolina State "Wolfpack," winner of the Southern Conference the past twelve straight years, Brigham Young, N. I. T. champion three years ago, the University of Toledo, and the University of Louisville, ranked 14th in the nation last year.

Coach McBrayer thinks that La Salle and Western Kentucky are possibly the best teams in the United States this year. Both have virtually the same personnel back that played last year. Western was all sophomores except for one man and will be especially tough for the next two years. McBrayer, starting his seventh season at Eastern, has had teams ranked in top twenty five in the nation four years. The highest rating was in 1940 when Eastern was eleventh. When asked what he thought of Eastern's chances this year he replied, "I think we'll have a good year."

W. R. A. News

By LOLLY ELLIS

Look out, U. K. and Cincinnati, here we come!!! With over fifty girls out for the hockey team, W. R. A. is preparing to work for positions on the team and to go after our two big rivals.

To any of you who don't know what W. R. A. is, here's a little note. The letters, W. R. A., stand for Women's Recreational Association and that is what the club is. The girls have a hockey, softball, and basketball season and also play volleyball and go swimming during the year. From now until around the first of December, you will see the girls playing hockey in front of the Health Building so if you want to join the fun, put on your old clothes and come on over. We'll be glad to have you!!!

The club is under the sponsorship of Mrs. McGuire and meets every afternoon from four til five. The officers of the club this year are "Sonnie" Burton, Ashland, president, Bev Wilson, Richmond, vice-president, Elvira Short, Richmond, Treasurer, and Beth Schwartzman, Ft. Thomas, secretary.

Band Shapes Up

The Eastern Band under the direction of William Tarwater has begun to shape up for the fall season. The director said they were progressing even more quickly than he had expected.

Forty per cent of the members are new. There are twenty four freshmen, fourteen sophomores, seventeen juniors and six seniors making up the sixty-piece band.

The band mascot, Mozart, is back for his third year. He has attended all the rehearsals.

More girls are in the band this year. They have twenty four girls and thirty six boys.

The theme for the first show was "good luck". The band formed everything but a pair of dice for the half time entertainment.

The Locker Room

Murray game: Thoroughbred's nagged for the third straight time. . . . and the balls came fumbling down."

Half-time: Pogo behind the 8-ball. Black cat with a red nose. Jinx: Where was Mozart at the Murray game?

? ? ? : Would maroon jackets help the baseball players battle the arctic region known as the stadium?

"Bonzo Goes to College": Don Daly and Ray Lindenfeller keep pointing at each other and looking worried.

Best in the State: Eastern's non-playing athletes.

Blessed Events: Gordon Fleck's busy developing his new muscle.

Wanderings: Bernice in stadium-land. (What ho, Bill?)

WANTED:

One stadium of school spirit for Saturday night.

Sadly lacking at the Murray game last week was the precious ingredient called pep or enthusiasm. Where was it?

Our pep club, KYMA, much interested in the situation, believes that the spirit is lacking because the student body is too scattered and separated. Enthusiasm breeds from unity, and to provide for it tomorrow night, KYMA Club is sectioning off a part of the stands. Those students interested in backing our team now may be, in turn, backed by their fellow students. Be influenced by KYMA guides and posters and get into the spirit of things.

VILLIAGE WOOS

"How's you get along in that fight with your wife the other night?"

"Oh, she came crawling to me on her knees."

"Yeah? What did she say?"

"Come on out from under that bed, you coward."

Eastern in Swim

By Bill Vendl

Water, water everywhere—and after only a few weeks of school, it becomes evident that Eastern has become "swim conscious". The swim program for the coming year has grown bigger and better than before. Pool hours have been increased. Swim facilities will be used by both the college and high school swim teams. Plans are being made to establish a swim club.

Instruction periods are available to everyone at a convenient time.

The pool accommodations are opened for physical education classes the second, fourth, seventh and eighth periods. Open swimming is available for college men on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday and for college women on Tuesday and Thursday, the ninth hour. Red Cross Instructors, Hugh Brooks, Jim Dailey, Jesse Reed and Bill Vendl are available these periods to assist and instruct all swimmers.

Plans for the Eastern swim team have already been placed in operation. New uniforms have been purchased. A schedule of 15 swimming meets is being prepared, seven of which to be held in home waters. These meets will include outstanding teams as the University of Tennessee, T.P.I., University of Kentucky, Berea College, and the University of Louisville. Since Eastern has no faculty swim coach, last year's co-captains Gordon Fleck and Bill Vendl will coach the competitive swimmers and Hugh Brooks will assist the divers.

Some consideration has been given toward the formation of a swim club. The function of this club would be to instruct all types of swimmers in the fundamentals of synchronization and water ballet and to establish as its goal an aquacade held at the end of the year. More details will be available in the near future.

With so varied a water program available, every student is urged to "get in the swim". Join a swimming class, the team or club, and let this be Eastern's year for aquatic recognition.

A little neglect may breed great mischief.

NOSE, THROAT,

and Accessory Organs not Adversely Affected by Smoking Chesterfields

FIRST SUCH REPORT EVER PUBLISHED ABOUT ANY CIGARETTE

A responsible consulting organization has reported the results of a continuing study by a competent medical specialist and his staff on the effects of smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

A group of people from various walks of life was organized to smoke only Chesterfields. For six months this group of men and women smoked their normal amount of Chesterfields—10 to 40 a day. 45% of the group have smoked Chesterfields continually from one to thirty years for an average of 10 years each.

At the beginning and at the end of the six-months period each smoker was given a thorough examination, including X-ray pictures, by the medical specialist and his assistants. The examination covered the sinuses as well as the nose, ears and throat.

The medical specialist, after a thorough examination of every member of the group, stated: "It is my opinion that the ears, nose, throat and accessory organs of all participating subjects examined by me were not adversely affected in the six-months period by smoking the cigarettes provided."
